

Mediation – treatment of a categorical mediator

For the equation where the mediator act as a predictor, it is treated as continuous latent response variables underlying the binary mediator when using WLSMV and as the observed binary variable itself (treated as continuous) when using ML. If you use Bayesian estimation you have a choice between these two approaches using the Predictor option.