The propensity score in Mplus is the model estimated conditional probability – it is conditional on the latent variable factor scores and the observed covariates. See https://www.statmodel.com/examples/webnotes/webnote20.pdf It is computed as for the individual residual.